CMRIT GETS A++ NAAC GRADE

Bengaluru: CMR Institute of Technology (CMRIT) has been accredited an A++ by the National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC). The NAAC gave the institute a rating of 3.71 out of 4 for a period of five years, with a grade of A++, the highest grade given to an institute. Assessment of the institution was done on October 17 and October 18, while the institution had earlier submitted a self-study report in April. NAAC assesses higher education institutions based on several criteria, including research, infrastructure, teaching and governance. CMRIT had previously been given a grade of A+. ENS
